Contributions are not tax deductible for federal/California income tax purposes. The Alameda County Campaign Reform Ordinance limits campaign contributions to a maximum of $20,000 per individual per election cycle (AC AC 1.07.030). The California Fair Political Practices Commission requires we collect your physical mailing address (not a P.O. Box), occupation, and employer for proper campaign finance reporting. Beginning August 21, 2020, the California FPPC also requires any campaign or committee which receives a contribution from a business must collect both the name of the business and the name of the company's Responsible Officer. Paid for by Nate Miley for Supervisor, FPPC ID #992285.
